

Webinar: Cayman Private Fund Law Update

July 16, 2020 (Thursday)

Speakers' bio

Anthony Webster, Partner, Maples and Calder

Anthony is the head of Private Equity team at Maples and Calder, the Maples Group's law firm, in Asia. He has acted for a wide variety of sponsors across the region, having advised on the Cayman Islands and British Virgin Islands aspects of over 500 funds (including many for the best-known private and state-sponsored Chinese promoters of offshore funds).

Anthony joined the Group's law firm in the Cayman Islands in 1998. Based in Hong Kong since 2001, he was elected as a partner in 2004. Anthony's expertise is widely recognised and is currently ranked as Eminent Practitioner by Chambers Asia Pacific, Band 1 lawyer for Offshore: Corporate & Finance including Investment Funds by Chambers Global, and recommended as a highly-regarded funds lawyer in Who's Who Legal, The Legal 500, and IFLR1000.

Anthony is currently a member of the China Working Group established by Cayman Finance, the body that represents the interests of the Cayman Islands financial industry overseas.

Andrew Wood, Associate, Maples and Calder

Andrew's practice focuses on investment funds for Asian clients and includes advising on all aspects relating to the formation and maintenance of both private equity and hedge funds. In addition, he advises on a broad spectrum of matters, including downstream corporate and finance transactions, public and private mergers and acquisitions, as well as on general corporate law.

Andrew joined the Group's law firm in 2017 in Hong Kong. Prior to that, Andrew was Counsel at Haiwen & Partners in Hong Kong and spent over six years in the Hong Kong office of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer.