

Jamie Allen

Secretary General

Asian Corporate Governance Association

Jamie Allen is the founding Secretary General of the Asian Corporate Governance Association (ACGA), an independent membership association carrying out original research, advocacy and education on corporate governance in Asia since 1999. A published author, he has more than 30 years of experience writing about Asian business, finance, and economics. Prior to founding ACGA, he was a consultant providing customised research to multinational companies. He is one of the main authors of “Awakening Governance: The evolution of corporate governance in China”, a new report published by ACGA in July 2018. His past public service roles include the Public Shareholders’ Group, formed by the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission (SFC), and the Listing Committee of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong. Since 2013, he has been a member of the Operations Oversight Committee of the Financial Reporting Council.
