

KUANG (SERENA) TAN

Partner, Hong Kong

Kuang (Serena) Tan is a funds partner in Morrison & Foerster’s Hong Kong office. Ms. Tan has extensive experience in forming and investing in private investment funds (including offshore funds, RMB funds, and dual-currency funds). A native Mandarin speaker with significant international experience, she has represented many of the most prominent sponsors and Asia institutional investors.

Ms. Tan is praised by clients as their “go-to lawyer for fund formation work that has a Chinese component,” a “highly diligent and talented” practitioner with “excellent professional knowledge and a strong commercial sense.” Clients praise her as “an ideal partner” who “understands the differences in offshore funds and RMB funds and the differences in international investors and Chinese investors” and “has the unusual ability to design optimal structures, bridge the gaps, and find solutions.”

Ms. Tan has over ten years of experience in New York and China.

EDUCATION

Fudan University School of Law,
(LL.B., 2005)

Fudan University School of Law,
(LL.M., 2008)

Harvard Law School,
(LL.M., 2009)

RANKINGS

Legal 500 Asia-Pacific 2018
Recommended for Investment
Funds in Hong Kong