

Webinar – April 20, 2022

Doos Choi, Partner, Mayer Brown

Doos Choi is a partner of Mayer Brown and has a wealth of international experience in banking and finance gained across three continents having worked in London, Sydney and Hong Kong. He has deep experience across a wide range of products including leveraged and acquisition finance, investment grade and sub-investment grade bi-lateral and syndicated loans, capital call financings, real estate finance, loan-to-own financings, margin loans, distressed portfolio sales and work-outs. Doos' experience spans numerous sectors including healthcare, financial services, real estate, oil & gas, retail, IT, consumer services, automotive, mining, gaming and insurance.

Doos advises banks, financial institutions, debt funds, private equity houses and corporates on complex multi-jurisdictional, multi-tiered, full and limited recourse financings.

He speaks English and Korean.

Danielle Roman, Partner, Mourant

I am a Partner and the Local Practice Leader of our Banking and Finance team in Hong Kong, having practised in Asia for over 15 years. I advise on a broad spectrum of cross-border transactions, including asset finance (in particular aviation and shipping), fund financing, acquisition and leveraged finance, debt restructurings and general corporate lending.

In fund financing, I regularly represent private and commercial banks on subscription credit facilities, hybrids, NAVs and GP/Management facilities. I am on the global board of the Fund Finance Association, and am also a board member of Women in Fund Finance.

I have significant expertise in helping major financial institutions, lessors and investors on the financing and leasing of commercial aircraft, corporate jets and other related assets, including engines and helicopters, across a variety of structures. I also advise on the finance and leasing of ships and other vessels. I am on the leadership team and board member for Advancing Women in Aviation Roundtable (AWAR).

Prior to joining Mourant in 2012, I worked at Clifford Chance in Hong Kong and Dentons in London.
